REFLECT

REFLECT is a curated series of post-show discussions featuring panelists with a range of viewpoints and expertise on the content and context of the play. Discussions take place directly following the 2PM matinee on select SUNDAYS at Lookingglass Theatre. The discussions are free and open to the public.

JULY 9
Escape, Exploration and Encounter: Is Moby Dick THE American novel?
Melville biographer Michael Shelden, author of Melville in Love: The Secret Life of Herman Melville and the Muse of Moby Dick, discusses what the epic novel reveals about the American character. Shelden’s biography of George Orwell was a Pulitzer Prize Finalist.

JULY 23
Adventures in Adaptation: Staging the Impossible
How does one tame an enormous whale of a novel? How much is done on the page, how much is done on the stage? A conversation with Moby Dick’s adaptor and director David Catlin and other guests.

AUGUST 13
Extremity and Endurance: Survival on the Open Sea
The crew of the Pequod is in for a long, rough ride even before they encounter a certain white whale. What were the hard and harsh realities of sun, sea, salt water, and the hunt for whale oil?

AUGUST 27
Mermaids, Myths, and Maritime Monsters: What Lies Beneath the Surface?
What creatures lurked in the murky ocean depths, haunting the dreams and nightmares of unknowing sailors? Northwestern University’s Tracy Davis and the Raven Foundation’s Andrew McKenna discuss.

Rick won a Jeff Award for Sound Design for Lookingglass’ Moby Dick and Hephaestus, as well as a Black Theatre Alliance Award for Congo Square Theatre Company’s Brothers In the Dust, and received several nominations for both awards. Rick is an Artistic Associate of Lookingglass, an Artistic Affiliate with American Blues Theater and an Associate Designer with Aria Music Designs (Ray Nardelli and Josh Horvath). Rick also wrote the book, music and lyrics for Lookingglass’ Hillbilly Antigone.

ISAAC SCHOEPP (Rigging Designer)’s rigging design credits include: Moby Dick (Lookingglass, Jeff Award; Alliance Theatre; Arena Stage; South Coast Repertory), Quest, Marnie and Phil: A Circus Love Letter, Circuscope, and Magical Exploding Boy (The Actors Gymnasium), and The Year I Didn’t Go to School (Chicago Children’s Theatre). Isaac is a proud Associate Artist with The Actors Gymnasium and serves as their staff rigging specialist. He has also appeared onstage with Lookingglass, The Actors Gymnasium, and The Back Room Shakespeare Project, among others. Each fall he coordinates the Christ College Freshman Drama Workshop at Valparaiso University. Much love to Claire.

AMANDA HERRMANN (Properties Designer) is pleased to be working on Moby Dick again. Other Lookingglass credits include: Beyond Caring, Mr. and Mrs. Pennyworth, and Life Sucks. Other credits include: W;t (The Hypocrites); The Hollow, The Tin Woman (Peninsula Players Theatre); Pirandello’s Henry IV, Fallen Angels (Remy Bumppo Theatre Company); Miss Bennet (Northlight Theatre); Naperville (Theater Wit); Balm in Gilead (Griffin Theatre); The Sweeter Option (Strawdog Theatre Company); The Apple Family Plays (TimeLine Theatre); and Velveteen Rabbit (Lifeline Theatre). Amanda is a graduate of Ripon College with a B.A. in Theater and Art.
SYLVIA HERNANDEZ-DISTASI (Circus Choreography/Lookingglass Artistic Associate) is a co-founder and the Artistic Director of The Actors Gymnasium, where she serves as master teacher, choreographer and director of The Professional Circus Training Program. Sylvia has been an Artistic Associate of Lookingglass since 1999. She has worked on more than 15 productions with the company, where she has received three (of her four) Jeff Awards for choreography (Baron in the Trees, Hard Times and Lookingglass Alice). Other Lookingglass credits include: Icarus, Little Prince, Moby Dick, and Thaddeus and Slocum: A Vaudeville Adventure, among others. Chicago Credits: Steppenwolf Theatre Company, Goodman Theatre and Chicago Shakespeare Theater. She is a recipient of the 3Arts Award for Design (2014) and the Award of Honor for Outstanding Contributions by the Illinois Theater Association (2015).

KATHY LOGELIN (Dialect Coach) is thrilled to be working with Lookingglass again, having previously coached Moby Dick in 2015, and Treasure Island. Recent coaching credits include: the 2016–17 tour of Moby Dick; Boeing, Boeing (Indiana Repertory Theatre); The Little Flower of East Orange and Jesus Hopped the A Train (Eclipse Theatre Company); The Mutilated with A Red Orchid Theatre); A Little World of Our Own and Spinning (Irish Theatre Chicago); The Woman in Black (WildClaw Theatre); and Persuasion (Chamber Opera Chicago, 2015 Edinburgh Festival Fringe). Kathy holds a B.S. in Acting from Illinois State University.

THE ACTORS GYMNASIUM At The Actors Gymnasium people Learn To Fly—physically, emotionally, and creatively. One of the nation’s premiere circus and performing arts training centers, Actors Gymnasium was founded in 1995 by a lifelong circus performer from Ringling Brothers, a co-founder of Tony Award-winning Lookingglass Theatre Company, an arts journalist, and a producer, in order to bring new physicality to the American Theatre. Three primary programs expand creativity, community, and courage: teaching circus arts, physical theatre and multi-disciplinary performance; producing original and daring circus-theatre, often in collaboration; and providing innovative event entertainment. Actors Gymnasium is a co-founder of Enrich Evanston: An Arts Equity Task Force. In addition to the longstanding partnership with Lookingglass, collaborators include Goodman Theatre, Chicago Children’s Theatre, Lucky Plush Productions, and many more. Camps, weekly classes, curriculum for five universities, master classes, summer intensive, and a 9-month professional training program develop artists of all ages and abilities. actorsgymnasium.org

PHILIP R. SMITH (Producing Director/Lookingglass Ensemble Member) most recently appeared as Dr. Aster in Life Sucks, Captain Smollett in Treasure Island at Lookingglass and Berkeley Repertory Theatre, and as Wrede Sartorius in The March at Steppenwolf Theatre Company. Other Lookingglass credits include Bass in Big Lake Big City, Ethan in Ethan Frome, Will in Trust, Phileas Fogg in Around the World in 80 Days, Ivan in The Brothers Karamazov, Tinker Bosch in The Wooden Breeks, and Creon in Hillbilly Antigone. Other recent credits include: Atticus Finch in To Kill a Mockingbird and Rev. Parris in The Crucible, both at Steppenwolf Theatre Company, and Fogg in Around the World in 80 Days at Baltimore’s Center Stage. Other regional credits include: McCarter Theatre, Seattle Repertory Theatre, Arden Theatre Company, Brooklyn Academy of Music (NYC), and The Actors’ Gang (LA). TV and film credits include: Boss, Friends, Prison Break, Chicago Hope, Early Edition, Kissing a Fool, Since You’ve Been Gone, High Fidelity, The Express, and The Dilemma. As Producing Director, oversight includes Lookingglass casting and serving as a primary artistic liaison to the development department, special events, marketing, and production departments.

ANDREW WHITE (Connectivity and Engagement Director/Lookingglass Ensemble Member) has participated as an actor, writer, or director in more than forty Lookingglass productions, most recently directing this season’s opening production, Life Sucks. He wrote the book and lyrics for Eastland: A New Musical, received a Jeff Award for his 2004 adaptation of George Orwell’s 1984 (which was presented at Steppenwolf Theatre Company last season as part of the Steppenwolf for Young Adults program), and wrote and directed Of One Blood, about the murder of three civil rights workers in 1964. He has taught in various Lookingglass outreach programs and residencies, and co-founded Mosaic Experience, a company which uses an arts-based approach to dialogue about diversity. His family in Evanston includes one wife, Shari; two children, Julia and Asher; and one cat named Jane.
MICHELE V. ANDERSON (General Manager) is in her eleventh season with Lookingglass Theatre Company, and in her eighth year as General Manager after having been the Director of Finance and Administration. Her over 20 years of experience in arts management include nearly ten years as Director of Finance & Administration at Steppenwolf Theatre Company, Business Manager of the International Theatre Festival of Chicago and numerous short-term consulting and freelance positions with Writers Theatre, About Face Theatre, Victory Gardens Theater, Chicago Gateway Green, Storycatchers Theatre and others. After receiving both a B.A. and a B.S. from Indiana University, Michele started her career in Chicago working for the for-profit producers Cullen Henaghan and Platt. Michele also has an M.A. in Arts Administration from Columbia College Chicago. She lives in Chicago with her husband Ken.

HEIDI STILLMAN (Artistic Director/Lookingglass Ensemble Member) has both written and directed productions for Lookingglass, including: Cascabel (in collaboration with Tony Hernandez and Rick Bayless,) The North China Lover, Hephaestus (in collaboration with Tony Hernandez), The Brothers Karamazov (2009 Raven Award), Hard Times (five Jeff Awards including Director, New Work, and Production; also produced at Arden Theatre Company in Philadelphia), and The Master and Margarita (Jeff Nominated). Additional writing credits with Lookingglass include: The Last Act of Lilka Kadison with Nicola Behrman, David Kersnar, Abbie Phillips and Andy White, The Old Curiosity Shop with Laura Eason and Raymond Fox (Jeff Award for Adaptation), and The Baron in the Trees with Larry DiStasi (Jeff Nominated). Directing work with Lookingglass includes: Death Tax, Bengal Tiger at the Baghdad Zoo, Trust, The Wooden Breeks, and Hillbilly Antigone. Heidi’s adaptation of The Book Thief premiered at Steppenwolf Theatre Company in 2012. She directed Minita Gandhi’s Muthaland for Silk Road Rising Solos and Victory Gardens’ Ignition Festival in 2015, CAATA/ConFEST in 2016, and at 16th Street Theatre in 2017. Additionally, Heidi has staged Mary Zimmerman’s The Arabian Nights at Berkeley Repertory Theatre. Most recently, she co-adapted and directed The Year I Didn’t Go to School at the Chicago Children’s Theatre. She looks forward to revisiting Hard Times in the 30th Anniversary Season. She lives in Chicago with her husband and her 13 year-olds, Sadie and Jude.

RACHEL E. KRAFT (Executive Director) is in her twelfth season as the Executive Director of Lookingglass Theatre Company, the recipient of the 2011 Regional Theatre Tony Award. Her thirty years of experience in arts management include over a decade as director of development at Goodman Theatre, in addition to key roles with the Arts and Business Council, Northlight Theatre, and the Chicago Dance Coalition. Rachel currently serves on the Executive Committee and Foundation Board of the League of Chicago Theatres, the local service organization for Chicago theater, after having served on its Board of Directors (including a term as Vice Chairman). She also served on the Board of Directors (including a term as Vice President) of Theatre Communications Group, the national service organization for nonprofit professional theater in the United States. Rachel remains an advisor to the documentary film organization the Kindling Group, where she was a charter board member and served on the board for fifteen years, is a trustee of the Jewish Women’s Foundation of Chicago, and serves on the Alumnae Council of the Chicago Foundation for Women after serving on the board and as Co-Chair of its Alumnae Council.
ABOUT LOOKINGGLASS

Inventive. Collaborative. Transformative. Lookingglass is home to a multi-disciplined collective of artists who create original, story-centered theatre through a physical and improvisational rehearsal process centered on ensemble. Lookingglass has staged 64 world premieres and garnered numerous awards in its mission to change, charge and empower audiences and artists alike. Lookingglass Education and Community Programs encourage creativity, teamwork, and confidence with thousands of students and community members each year. In 2003, Lookingglass Theatre opened in Chicago’s landmark Water Tower Water Works. In 2011, Lookingglass received the American Theatre Wing’s Tony Award® for Outstanding Regional Theatre. In 2016, Lookingglass received the MacArthur Award for Creative and Effective Institutions.

ENSEMBLE UPDATE

MARA BLUMENFELD last designed Beyond Caring and Mr. and Mrs. Pennyworth at Lookingglass. Other recent projects include Mary Zimmerman’s new production of Rusalka for the Metropolitan Opera, Parade for Writers Theatre, and the revival of Mary’s adaptation of The Odyssey for the Oregon Shakespeare Festival.

J. NICOLE BROOKS was last seen on the Lookingglass stage as Tracy in Beyond Caring. She has several projects and commissions in development. @doctaslick

THOMAS J. COX was last seen at Lookingglass in a single performance as Ahab in Moby Dick; prior to that, he appeared in Cascabel. He spent last fall appearing in Court Theatre’s Man in the Ring and as Orestes in Electra. He spent the winter and spring teaching drama to very small people.

LAWRENCE E. DISTASI was last seen onstage at Lookingglass as Frank in Thaddeus and Slocum: A Vaudeville Adventure. He is currently spending a lot of time dancing with excel spreadsheets.

CHRISTINE MARY DUNFORD most recently appeared in Blood Wedding at Lookingglass. She directed her own adaptation of Still Alice at Lookingglass in the spring of 2013. Christine continues to work on The Memory Ensemble and as director of the School of Theatre & Music at UIC.

KEVIN DOUGLAS’ play Thaddeus and Slocum: A Vaudeville Adventure had its world premiere at Lookingglass in 2015. He has also co-written an independent film called Call Center. He and his wife have a web-series titled Tam and Kevin Under 60—Short Sketch comedy videos in under 60 seconds! They can all be seen on YouTube. His next play will be a comedy titled, Plantation! and it will have its world premiere at Lookingglass in early 2018!

LAURA EASON recently finished her fourth season as a writer/producer on the Emmy-award winning Netflix drama House of Cards. Her feature film debut begins shooting this summer, produced and starring Sarah Jessica Parker. Her play Sex with Strangers was one of the top ten most produced plays in the US in 2015/16 and 2016/17 seasons, and had its London premiere in January at Hampstead Theatre. lauraeason.com @LeasonNYC

JOY GREGORY is beginning her fourth season as a writer-producer on the CBS series Madam Secretary. Her episode “Waiting for Taleju” was nominated for a Humanitas Prize this year. She is still setting up a film adaptation of her play, The Shaggs: Philosophy of the World and hopes this will be the year. She staunchly believes democracy will survive all this.

DOUG HARA recently returned to Lookingglass to direct his own play, Mr. and Mrs. Pennyworth. He was recently seen in Philadelphia playing Peter Quince in Arden Theatre Company’s production of A Midsummer Night’s Dream.
ENSEMBLE UPDATE

DAVID KERSNAR is directing 20,000 Leagues Under the Seas both next year for Lookingglass and currently at Monterey Peninsula College, where he serves as Theatre Arts Chair.

LOUISE LAMSON is looking forward to being back on the Lookingglass stage in the fall production of Hard Times. In the meantime, she is enjoying directing third graders at Peirce Elementary in their production of The Lorax.

DANIEL OSTLING most recently designed the set and lights for Beyond Caring. Prior to, he directed and designed Blood Wedding last season. Recently he designed Mary Zimmerman’s Rusalka at the Metropolitan Opera in NYC and Timon of Athens (for Amanda Dehnert at Oregon Shakespeare Festival). Last winter, he opened a new A Christmas Carol at McCarter Theatre in Princeton, NJ.

DAVID SCHWIMMER was thrilled to co-produce Beyond Caring with Lookingglass, and is preparing to direct Plantation! by Ensemble Member Kevin Douglas next season.

JOEY SLOTNICK just finished the Broadway revival of The Front Page. He was last seen in Chicago with his improvisational colleagues Lauren Katz & John Lehr for the 20th Chicago Improv Festival.

TRACY WALSH recently appeared in and choreographed Electra at Court Theatre. Most recently at Lookingglass, she choreographed Blood Wedding and choreographed and appeared in The North China Lover. She wrote and directed Handle With Care, a play about quality, affordable childcare which is currently being performed around Chicago.

TEMPLE WILLIAMS III is Chief Operating Officer of 51 Minds Entertainment (an Endemol Company), a Los Angeles based production company focused on non-scripted television. Additionally, Temple is Chief Executive of Freedom Media, a company dedicated to financing independent feature films (credits include, The Forger and Maggie’s Plan). Temple lives in Los Angeles with his wife, photographer and entrepreneur Cyndi Finkle, and their daughter, Sullivan Clare Williams.

MARY ZIMMERMAN directed the Leonard Bernstein musical Wonderful Town at Goodman Theatre last fall. In February she directed the Dvorják opera Rusalka at the Metropolitan Opera, broadcast live to movie theaters in Chicago and around the world. This summer, she will revisit her Odyssey (Lookingglass 1990; Goodman, 1999) at the Oregon Shakespeare Festival in the outdoor theatre.

SUPPORT LOOKINGGLASS

We invite you to join the donor family that helps bring theatre to life on stage and in the classroom. Lookingglass Theatre Company depends on the generous, ongoing investment of its donors and patrons to create innovative and artistically excellent theatrical productions, and to share its ensemble-based techniques with underserved youth in the Chicago community. These tax-deductible contributions bridge the gap between ticket sales and the actual costs of Lookingglass programming. We invite you to be part of the collaboration that makes great theatre possible by donating to Lookingglass Theatre Company. Whatever the amount, your gift will help sustain the breadth and quality of Lookingglass’ work, both onstage and in the community. To make a donation by phone or for more information on making a gift, please contact the Development Department at 773.477.9257 X 122. Donations can be addressed to 875 N Michigan Ave, Suite 1430, Chicago, IL 60611.

GIFT CERTIFICATES
Lookingglass gift certificates are perfect for all occasions. Available in any denomination, gift certificates can be exchanged for tickets to any Lookingglass production. Gift subscriptions offer the recipient guaranteed seats and the numerous perks and discounts available only to subscribers. To order, call the box office at 312.337.0665 or stop by the next time you attend a show.

ACCESSIBILITY
Lookingglass Theatre is accessible to people who use wheelchairs, those who cannot walk stairs, and patrons with visual and hearing impairments. Please notify the box office in advance of your visit so that we can best accommodate your needs. Box office: 312.337.0665 or box@lookingglasstheatre.org.

Lookingglass is pleased to offer an open captioned and an audio described performance for each production in our 2016–17 season. For more information, visit lookingglasstheatre.org/accessibility.

LOST AND FOUND
Lost and found information may be exchanged at the box office; please call 312.337.0665.

CAMERAS AND RECORDING DEVICES
The use of cameras (with or without a flash), recorders, or other electronic devices is strictly prohibited. The video and/or audio recording of this performance by any means whatsoever is also strictly prohibited.

PAGERS, PHONES AND WATCH ALARMS
Patrons are asked to silence pagers, cellular phones, and watch alarms before entering the theatre.

LATECOMERS
Latecomers are seated at the discretion of management and may have to wait until a suitable break in the action of the play to be seated.

Smoking is prohibited.

Lookingglass Theatre is not responsible for personal property.

Lookingglass Coat Check is available for $1 per item; all proceeds benefit Season of Concern. We cannot accept fur coats.

Thanks to The Saints: Volunteers for the Performing Arts for providing ushers. For information, visit saintschicago.org or call 773.529.5510.

Thanks to Carol Friedman, Lookingglass Theatre Company’s Saints volunteer usher coordinator.

ENTER TO WIN tickets to a Lookingglass production by filling out our audience survey. Surveys can be completed online at lookingglasstheatre.org/survey.
